The L. and N. uses The Ledger columns to invite people to travel over its road.

Mr. Charles E. Dietrich, Foreman of The Ledger's Job Department, spent yesterday with friends in Cincinnati.

The ladies of the First Baptist Church will serve dinner Thursday in the building adjoining Owens's Hardware store. Don't forget it.

Civil Engineer Hankins of the C. and O. is here from Richmond, Va., to remain some time in charge of extensive changes in the roadway through this city.

Charles Culvert Fischer, aged six years, died Sunday morning in Cincinnati. The deceased was a son of Mrs. Emma Fischer, nee Kreutz. The remains will arrive here on the 1:36 train and will be taken direct to the Cemetery.

Call and let me show what a handsome Diamond Ring, Stud or Pendant I can sell you for little money. Prices are guaranteed lower than you buy for anywhere.

P. J. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

Mr. Charles Howard's comfortable two-story country home, just back of Murphysville, was destroyed by fire this morning at daylight. The household goods on the first floor were saved, but those in the second story were lost. The origin of the fire is not known. Loss, $1,000; insurance, $500.

Farmers, before placing your order for Wire Fencing, come in and examine the Kokomo. It has many superior points. Prices are right. THOMPSON & MCATEE.

Saturday an eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Azman Yarnell of Prospect street, in attempting to catch on behind a passing buggy in Forest avenue, caught his leg in the wheel and before the vehicle could be stopped the limb was broken in two places.

BUSINESS REVIVED

Short Street Troughs Getting Ready For the Spring Trade

The vicinity of Short street has been on its good behavior for some time, but Saturday night the dull monotony was broken and high-jinks and lively times were in full swing.

In a fight that followed a drunken brawl a character dubbed Major Watson was slashed in the face several times with a knife, receiving ugly if not dangerous wounds, from which blood flowed freely.

The knife wielder is said to have been a man named Perkins from Augusta, and did the cutting after he had been roughly handled by the crowd of toughs of which Watson seemed to be the leader.

The same evening Elmer Limerick was standing on the corner of Second and Short, and without provocation, so he says, a fellow walked up to him and batted him with a rock, cutting a gash above his eye and knocking him down.

There will be grist to grind in the Police Court today and more money for the School Fund.

Miss Maggie Briscois of Ripley and Mrs. Kate Klauswitzer of Cummins, O., are here at the bedside of their brother, Mr. John Briscois, who is critically ill with typhoid fever.

For some days Mayor Helmbold and City Auditor Lang of Newport have been searching for a record of a bond issue of $81,000 that was put forth by the city over forty years ago and is still hanging over the heads of the taxpayers.

The sketch writer in Sunday's Commercial Tribune is in error when he says Charlie Davis the circus man murdered his wife and committed suicide in this city. The double tragedy occurred in New Orleans, but both were brought here for burial; and no handsomer couple were ever laid to rest in the Maysville Cemetery.

"LIVES OF GREAT MEN ALL REMIND US"

The story of how Marshall Field amassed his great fortune may be told in a few words. He had something to sell and advertised it.

Mrs. Mattie Harris of Danville died Saturday of acute indigestion after only three hours illness.

Mrs. Eliza Wise of Cincinnati, who is ill at the home of her sister, Miss Effie Jackson, is improving.

ROMEO AND JULIET

An important feature of the Simville production of Shakespeare's immortal tragedy of love and passion to be given at the Washington Theater Friday, February 23d, is the scenery. There will be shown street scenes in both ancient Verona and Mantua, the Palace of the Capulets, the Cloisters of a Convent, Juliet's chamber, interior of the monument of the Capulets and the famous balcony scene. Seats on sale Wednesday morning at Ray's.

HURT HIS FEELINGS

The Only Damage to a Most Popular Young Horseman

Did you see him going—and the tumble?
And what a fall it was, too, my countrymen; pride and glory all in a heap.

The entire population of Market street turned out and ran to the scene. Some said it was a riot, others a fire, and still others expressed the opinion that the Captain Stephen Fleming had kerfuffled and busted her "biler."

Fortunately they were all wrong in their deductions and nothing serious resulted from the incident.

It was this way:
Everybody knows Larry Langefels—handsome genial Larry, hale fellow well met, and a friend to all mankind.

Among other things Larry has a fondness for a thoroughbred horse.

He prides himself that he is the owner of a regular Maud S. His friends think otherwise, and have been twitting and telling him the best he had was a good dray horse, nothing more.

Saturday Larry passed up Market in his runabout, and standing on the sidewalk was ex-Sheriff James R. Roberson, one of his most persistent teasers.

It was Larry's opportunity to display the mettle of his horse as well as himself as a handler of the reins.

Casting a gloating glance at Mr. Roberson, as much as to say watch me cut the dust, at the same time raising his arms akimbo, and with a get-there-Maudie, he passed up Market, and in making a short turn at Third, going East, the whole outfit came to grief, the animal slipped on the iron-crossing and almost turned a somersault.

After friends came to his aid and righted things, it was found nothing was hurt except Larry's feelings, and he did look a little crestfallen.

NEWPORT Councilmen propose to charge little boys $20 apiece for selling newspapers on the streets. Kentucky—state and municipal—must have taxes.

It's been a long while since the "yaller papers" have had such a bonanza of "slush" as was afforded by the Longworth-Roosevelt wedding. Now that it's over, it will be necessary for some of them hereabouts to fall back on their Owingsville and Mayking correspondents.

If Cincinnati perseveres she'll soon be up with Louisville. Within the past week two streetcars were held up and the Conductors robbed, and four highwaymen, armed with guns, went through half a dozen pedestrians in a crowded street before it was fairly dark. What a great thing "Reform Government" is!

QUITE A CONTRAST.

In looking over an old copy of The Democrat of November 21st, 1878, we came across this item: "The average price offered for hogs in this county is $2.25." How would that strike you in 1906? They are worth $5.25 or possibly a little more if they are first class.—Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

Well, I'll be jingswanged! And in spite of the dadgasted Dingley Robber Tariff, too!

NEARLY 6,000 Americans, men, women and children, are in peril of death at the hands of Chinese mobs in the threatened Boxer uprising. To rescue as many of these as possible from danger and take drastic action in every case where an American is molested is the purpose of the President, through the State, War and Navy Departments.

I wish the Legislature would hurry up and do its do. I am anxious to know whether I am to live in Mason or Rowan counties, and whether WILL YOUNG or ROLLA HART is to be boss of the Deestrick.

THE Chicago Council Committee which is considering the question of raising the license for saloons to $1,000 per annum has compiled the following interesting statistics relative to licenses—

	Population.	Saloons in 1905.	License.
New York	4,000,000	11,000	$1,200
Chicago	2,000,000	8,132	$500
Philadelphia	1,400,000	1,737	$1,100
St. Louis	650,000	2,253	$600
Boston	600,000	1,184	$500 to $2,000
Buffalo	400,000	1,500	$750
Pittsburgh	350,000	572	$1,100
Minneapolis	250,000	500	$1,000
St. Paul	175,000	383	$1,000
Kansas City	175,000	590	$860
Rochester, N. Y.	175,000	504	$750
Omaha	125,000	242	$1,000
Atlanta	100,000	104	$1,000

If you'll kindly whet your pencil and begin a-figgering, you'll probably discover that, taking population into consideration, saloons blossom more profusely in those towns where the license fee is low. Whenever you're able to suck the Ohio dry with a ten-cent syringe, you'll enforce Prohibition laws; but High License will greatly lessen the number of saloons, besides improving the character of those that remain.

A PHENOMENON.

London Tatler.

A Negro Preacher while speaking to an audience of his own color chanced to make use in the course of his remarks of the word "phenomenon." This rather puzzled several of his hearers, who, at the close of the meeting, asked to be informed of its meaning. Not knowing quite how to answer them, the Preacher put them off till the following Sunday, when he thus explained: "If you see a cow, that's not a 'phenomenon.' If you see a thistle, that's not a 'phenomenon.' And if you see a bird that sings, that's not a 'phenomenon,' either. But," he said, "if you see a cow sitting on a thistle and singing like a bird, then that's a 'phenomenon.'"

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"TAKING HIS MEALS OUT." "Hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destroying process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health. A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness. In families where August Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder affections. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy. Two sizes, 25c and 75c. All druggists. For sale by J. JAS. WOOD & SON.

ELOQUENT TRIBUTE

A Kentucky Writer's Estimate of Abraham Lincoln

Among the numerous tributes from Kentuckians to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, we can recall none that is more impressive than the tribute which we print below. It is taken from a biographical sketch of the Confederate General, George E. Pickett, published by Burrows Bros., Cleveland, in the year 1900. General Pickett received his military training at West Point, having been appointed to that institution through the influence of Abraham Lincoln. When the news of the President's assassination came to General Pickett a few days after the declaration of peace, the General exclaimed, "My God, the South has lost her best friend." The sketch, though brief, is comprehensive, discriminating and just. "To say that Abraham Lincoln was not faultless is merely to say that he was not divine; to insist that he was not far-sighted and sagacious, is to suggest that he was divinely inspired. If he sometimes erred in his conceptions of the military situation, he erred with men who were presumed to be masters in the art of war. In vain we look among the children of men for infallibility either in statesmanship or the strategic art. Imperial Caesar sometimes slept. The greatest captains sometimes err. Nothing is more fickle than the fortune of war. Nevertheless, Abraham Lincoln was an incomparable leader of men; and, while McClellan and Grant could direct more or less successfully the operations of a hundred thousand men in the field, it was Abraham Lincoln alone that could hold in hand the vast and turbulent electorate of eighteen Northern states. This was the host, in its more dangerous aspects a coalition of fanaticism and greed, which the South was called to confront; and it was Lincoln's consummate generalship, happily for the South, that held these radical and aggressive elements in check. From a disciplined army in the field, the populations of the seceding states had far less to fear, even when its soldiers were embittered by disaster or inflamed by success. The attitude of Lincoln in the contest was that of the famous warrior whose sagacious policy of procrastination baffled the Carthaginian invader, flushed with successive victories over the consular armies of Rome. As it was felicitously said of the one, so most fitly it may be said of the other: Unus homo nobis cunctando restituit rem.

"Abraham Lincoln was, politically, the highest embodiment of the ideas, the aspirations, the impulses of his time. He was the incarnation, too, of the sovereign will which made him chief. Popular clamors wearied his ear and vexed his heart, but they could not affect the convictions of a lifetime, his profound sense of administrative duty, or the settled policy of the pending war. He was leading the forces of the loyal states; he was assailing the forces of the seceding states; he endeavored to be faithful to the fundamental interests of both. When the end of the Confederacy came, he was standing as a tall, strong pillar of support for the broken and exhausted South; and when he fell, the vanquished Confederates felt that their cause was indeed lost. They looked forward to the inauguration of his successor with a natural sentiment of dread. This sentiment of apprehension was not realized at once. Though an iron policy of reconstruction was subsequently adopted in the subjugated states, they were happily relieved from immediate apprehension by the heroic interposition of Grant. It is, nevertheless, true that at this particular juncture 'the South had lost her best friend.' And many a generous Southerner grieved honestly for the loss."

Mrs. M. Archdeacon and Miss Ida Squires are in Cincinnati today.

At Grayson Jack Allen and Joseph Hall were given four years and Tom Monehan was given six years in the Penitentiary for attempting to blow the Bank safe at Willard on October 30th.

"Anarchy in Maysville" was Rev. C. W. Chadwick's subject last evening at the First Baptist Church, and to the writer it was rather disappointing, inasmuch as shown by the speaker the moral turpitude of this city was no greater than that of cities of similar conditions and population. In fact, none escaped under the general arraignment. Saint and sinner were Anarchists in a certain sense, according to the interpretation of the Reverend gentleman, and presumed Christians failing to live up to the laws of the Church and the mandates of God were classed with the Anarchist who defied the laws of the Government under which he was protected and equally guilty of a moral and religious wrong. The sermon was instructive and pleasing throughout. A compliment was extended both city and county officials for their zeal and efforts in upholding the law, and he called on his congregation that prayers be offered up to the Throne of Grace in their behalf that they might continue in well doing.

OLD AGE

DEPENDS NOT UPON YEARS, BUT UPON VITAL FORCE.

In Maysville lately there has been a good deal of discussion in regard to old people. Some at fifty years call themselves old, and really appear so, while others at seventy years seem active, vigorous and young.

It is not years, but it is loss of vital force that makes a person old. Weakened digestion, thin blood and poor circulation soon start functional powers and vitality on the wane, and then the symptoms of old age quickly appear.

Our well known druggist, Mr. John C. Pecor, says "that old feeling may be warded off, and we wish every person in Maysville who feels old, whether they are so in years or not, would try the great discovery, Vinol. We know that it has vital principles which will in a natural manner strengthen digestion, send rich, red blood coursing through the veins, and give new life and strength to every organ of the body, and this is what makes the old feel young again."

Mrs. H. W. Avery says:

"At the age of eighty-nine I felt the need of a tonic, something to strengthen and build me up. For some time I have been taking Vinol, and I have found that it brings vigor and renewed vitality to the aged as nothing else will."

Vinol repairs worn tissues, checks the natural decline and replaces weakness with strength. It is an ideal body builder for old folks.

We promise you that Vinol is, first of all, agreeable, because it contains no fishy oil. Second, that it is a genuine cod liver medicine, containing all the medicinal curatives and strength-making elements taken direct from fresh cod livers; and third, we will return your money if it does not do exactly what we claim for it.

JOHN C. PECOR, Druggist.

Ladies, the concert at the Opera-house beginning at 10:15 on Thursday is for you. Two good bands will furnish music. The reason you are not expected in the afternoon is that the room will be required to accommodate the men interested in producing and handling tobacco. Children who desire to hear this concert must go with some one who will be responsible for their good conduct. Gentlemen are expected to attend the concert.

A Papal encyclical was issued to the French episcopacy, clergy and people Saturday on the situation of the Church in France, strongly condemning the law providing for the separation of Church and state, and giving advice to Catholics.

Sir Chentung Liang Chang, Chinese Minister at Washington, is quoted as saying that if the present movement of the opponents of the existing dynasty amounts to an uprising, the result will be a sickening slaughter of malcontents by Government troops. As long as China is allowed to control its own affairs, he says, there is no likelihood of a foreign war.

The thirty-eighth anniversary of the founding of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks was celebrated by New York Lodge Saturday night with a brilliant banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria. The guest of honor was Grand Exalted Ruler Robert W. Brown of Louisville.

River News

The gage marks 8.1 and rising.

The Ashland wharves sank Thursday.

Cincinnati is now practically the head of navigation on the Ohio.

The falling river is leaving a number of houseboats out on the bank.

Harbor boats at Cincinnati use "bulldozers" in scattering and ridding the harbor of ice.

The Mardi Gras excursion projected by the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Packet Company had to be abandoned, the officials thinking the water too low to run the Queen City with safety. The boat is now tied up at Wheeling.

Correspondence

SPRINGDALE.

Mr. Fred Lemming left Monday for Hamilton, O.
The ice harvest was completed here last Saturday.
Mrs. Susan Pigg was in Maysville on business Friday.
Mr. L. C. Harrison of Lewis county was here Monday.
Mr. U. G. Adams delivered his crop of tobacco at Maysville Wednesday.
Mr. Ernest Farres left the first of the week to visit friends in Cincinnati.
Mr. Arthur D. Tolle of Tollesboro was calling on friends and relatives here Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Garrett came down from Manchester to visit relatives and friends this week.
Robert Hord and family left Monday for Hamilton, O., where they expect to reside in the future.

School has resumed after a few days dismissal, made necessary after the recent fire at the schoolhouse.

The sale of personal property of Mr. R. Hord on Friday was well attended and good prices were obtained.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Tully of Garrison and Mrs. Lula Orton of Quincy visited Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Tully Thursday.

Brother F. S. Pollitt of Los Angeles, Cal., was here Friday en route home, after a brief visit to his Old Kentucky Home.

The public is reminded that the invitation to attend our school celebration Friday, February 23d, is to all. Good recitations, songs, speeches, &c., &c. 1732+1906=174.

J. S. and C. C. Degman delivered their tobacco, 6,275 pounds, at 9 cents to the American Tobacco Company Thursday. A cigarette sample of this crop will be shown at the Fair February 22d.

Even the small boys of this neck of the woods will attend the coming Tobacco Fair, not necessarily to see the elegant samples of the weed, potatoes, corn, &c., but to take in fine music, Opera-house, &c.

The remains of Mrs. America Luman Hughes of Portsmouth, O., were brought here Tuesday en route to be laid by the side of relatives in the family burying-ground at Olivet. Mrs. Hughes was the daughter of the late Jerry Luman, whose wife was Dorcas Evens of Fleming county. She was married to Allen Hughes, who was also a native of Fleming county and a prominent schoolteacher. A few years ago they moved to Portsmouth, O.

Mrs. James Maloney, who has been at Flemingsburg, passed through here en route to her home at Baltimore.

Saleswomen's Peril

GRAVE DISEASES, DUE TO STANDING

Facts About Miss Merkley's Dangerous Illness and Complete Cure

Have you ever thought why so many women or girls rather walk an hour than stand still for ten minutes?

It is because most women suffer from some derangement of their delicate organism, the discomfort of which is less trying when they are in motion than when standing.

In some states laws compel employers to provide resting places for their female employees.

But no amount of law can regulate the hard tasks of these women. They must get the strength which this work demands or run the risk of serious diseases and the surgeon's knife.

Read the experience of Miss Margaret Merkley, 275 3d Street, Milwaukee, Wis.:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"Gradual loss of strength, nervousness, bearing-down pains and extreme irritation compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor said I had diseased organs and ulceration, and advised an operation if I wanted to get well. I objected to this and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I soon found that all the good things said about this great medicine were true. The ulceration soon healed, backache, headache and nervousness disappeared, and in a short time I was strong, vigorous and perfectly well. I wish every working girl who suffers would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a vegetable tonic which invigorates and strengthens the entire female organism, and will produce the same beneficial results in the cases of other sick women as with Miss Merkley.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Maysville People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home

It's not words, but deeds, that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, For Maysville kidney sufferers, Have made their local reputation.

Proof lies in the testimony of Maysville people who have been cured to stay cured.

John Wallingford, living at the corner of Commerce and East Second streets, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I first procured Doan's Kidney Pills in 1899 at J. James Wood & Son's Drugstore, and they stopped an attack of backache, one of many which had annoyed me for some time. My wife at that time gave for publication in our local papers a statement telling of the great benefit I had derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, and now, some five years later, I can say that the cure then effected has been complete and permanent. My back and kidneys have never given me the least cause for complaint. Mrs. Wallingford also appreciated the value of Doan's Kidney Pills from personal experience with them. She suffered most acutely with backache, especially at night, and Doan's Kidney Pills promptly and thoroughly cured her."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
